

FIRE WARDEN / MARSHAL TRAINING COURSE

Areas covered

1. Fire legislation
2. Basic anatomy of fire
3. Fire risk assessment process
4. Evacuation procedure
5. The role of the fire warden
6. Use of fire extinguishers

Objectives

- Provide a sound understanding of fire including - the hazards, risks and possible causes of fire in the workplace
- Examine the various fire precautionary measures provided in the workplace including - fire resisting construction/ compartmentation, fire alarm systems, emergency lighting, fire signage and fire fighting equipment.
- Understand and appreciate the importance of effective fire precautions arrangements including - general fire prevention, good housekeeping, action in case of fire, specific roles within the Emergency Action Plan, calling the fire brigade and evacuation procedures.
- Understand the various classes of fire, the different types of fire extinguishers available, their correct selection and safe use.
- Recognise the role of the Fire Warden including - supporting roles with the Emergency Action Plan, action in the event of fire, fire evacuation, fire prevention best practice, fire safety training and essential record keeping.

Facilitator

FireRite, Unit 14, Roundabout Court, Bedwas House Ind Est, Caerphilly, CF83 8FS
02920 867 222 • www.firerite.co.uk • sales@firerite.co.uk

Company Registration Number: 3697360 • VAT Number: 728809792

www.firerite.co.uk